

Man that is born of a woman is of a few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down, I he fleeth also as a shadow and continueth not. Job 14:1-2. A man's life is short here on earth and is full of trouble, trying to meet all his needs (physical, material, financial, spiritual and marital needs) that he thinks are paramount to him.

Now it came to pass as they went that he entered into a certain village and a certain woman named Martha receive them into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his words. But Martha was cumbered about with serving and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone, bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said to her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things. But one thing is needful and Mary had chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. Luke 10:38-42. That is how mankind is so cumbered with a lot of needs and is truly troubled about them, neglecting the needful.

But man has a supreme need; what is that supreme need of mankind? For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3:16. This is the supreme need of mankind; the love of God that culminated in the salvation of man. The love of God that reconciles man back to God. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13. What a man need is the love of God demonstrated in Christ's death on the cross to redeem mankind and reconcile us back to God. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled we shall be save by his life. Romans 5:8-10.

There is danger ahead of mankind, the danger of eternity in damnation and eternal separation from God. The needful for mankind is to embrace the love of God that hath wrought salvation for mankind to be delivered from-the danger ahead. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of-life and the dead were judge out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to his works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Revelation 20:11 -15. This is the danger facing mankind, God's Judgment.

Being cumbered and troubled about other needs is of no profit to man. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Mark 8:36-37. Eternal life through the love of God is the supreme need of mankind. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 1 John 4:9-10. The love of God for mankind brought his only begotten Son to the world, and was made a Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world. John 1:29.

Embrace this great love of God, it is the needful that Mary hath, that no one could take away from her. Behold, what manner of love the Father had bestowed upon us, that we should be called -the sons of God. 1 John 3:1. God has bestowed upon mankind, his great love. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together and had made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Ephesians 2:4-6. That is the great love God has for mankind whom he created in his own image and likeness and gave dominion over all other creatures created. Genesis 1:26-31.

This is what is needful in a man's life, to totally embrace this great love, and not running after other things, neglecting the needful, for we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 1 Timothy 6:7. So that we can be saved from the danger that awaits those who fail to embrace this love. But after that the kindness and love of God our savior toward man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost, which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:4-7. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him. Hebrew 2:3.

"The supreme need of mankind is to embrace God's love demonstrated by Christ's death on the cross to save us, reconciles us back to God, granting us life eternally in God's Kingdom.

My brother, my sister, embrace this great love now and live, for tomorrow may be too late, so that you don't regret it for all eternity.
